The Radnor Township Police Department will be hosting a community symposium addressing “Active Shooter” situation in schools.

The purpose is to raise awareness, to promote open discussion and to share possible solutions regarding security in our schools, churches, and religious institutions.

Members of the Radnor Police Department, FBI – Delaware County DA Office will present the following discussion topics:

- Ideology and Methodology of the Active Shooter
- Lone Wolf Attack Theories - “Run, Hide and Fight” Video
- Radnor Police Department Responses to an Active Shooter Event
- Special Display of Equipment Used In Major Incidental Response

REGISTRATION: To register for this seminar, please email Vera DiMaio at vdimaio@radnor.org.

This public safety symposium is free to all Radnor Township Residents and the General Public

For questions please contact: Deputy Superintendent Christopher Flanagan at (610)-688-5600
