

10th Annual

SPRING EGGSTRAVAGANZA

Calling all local businesses!

The Radnor Township Recreation & Community Programming Department is looking for local businesses who would like to contribute prizes for our 10th Annual Spring Eggstravaganza taking place on Sunday, March 29th (rain date April 5th) from 12:00 to 2:00 PM at Villanova University. This FREE event for Radnor residents is a great opportunity to get exposure for your business. We have had over 3,000 people attend in previous years!

4 different age specific egg hunts: (Ages 0-2, Ages 3-5, Ages 6-8, and Ages 9+)

We are looking for two different prize categories:

“Golden Egg Prizes” - This is where participants find specific prize eggs stuffed with a piece of paper that tell them to go to a prize table to collect a prize! This is for bigger prizes that only a few lucky participants are able to receive. Examples would be gift cards, prize baskets, birthday party packages, etc.

“Giveaway Prizes” - These are items that are in bulk that we can spread out in the 4 distinctive egg hunt areas on the field. Examples would be coupon cards, small trinkets like beach balls, bracelets, or other promotional items that have your company name on them. This is a perfect way to get your name out to a large amount of people!

Please reach out to Tracey Krum, Recreation Program Coordinator at tkrum@radnor.org or 610-688-5600 ext. 136 if you are interested in contributing to this amazing event and you would like to learn more!
