The Radnor Township Police Department will be hosting a church/religious institution and community symposium addressing “Active Shooter” situations in churches/religious institutions and community meeting places.

The purpose is to raise awareness, help prevent incidents, promote open discussion, and to share possible solutions regarding security in our churches/religious institutions.

Members of the Radnor Police Department, FBI, & the Delaware County District Attorney’s Office will present the following discussion topics:

- Ideology and Methodology of the Active Shooter – Colleyville Synagogue Hostage Review
- Radnor Police Department Responses to an Active Shooter/Attack Event
- Discussion of services provided by Radnor Police including CPR Training, Stop the Bleed Training, Code Red Notification system, Tabletop Exercises, and free Building Assessments
- Review of recent attacks on religious institutions
- Vulnerability Assessment tools and emergency planning

REGISTRATION: To register, please email Vera DiMaio at vdimaio@radnor.org by 4/1/22

This public safety symposium is free to the General Public
There will be free gun locks distributed by Radnor Police to prevent gun violence
