RE: 2018 DCNR/PRPS Green and Sustainable Park Award

Dear Ms. Cohen:

Congratulations! Radnor Township Recreation and Community Programming Department has been selected as the recipient of the 2018 DCNR/PRPS Green and Sustainable Park Award for your work at Clem Macrone Park. Your efforts exemplify sustainable design through natural landscaping, your choice of construction materials, and directly connecting the community to nature. Clem Macrone Park demonstrates the compatibility of different park uses, providing both active and passive recreational opportunities while restoring the natural environment of the site.

You will receive a plaque recognizing you for your outstanding work during the Society Luncheon on Tuesday, March 29th at the PRPS Conference at the Kalahari Resort in Pocono Manor, PA. You will also be receiving, at a later date, a tree and commemorative marker to be located within Clem Macrone Park. We will work with you on the details of a ceremony this spring. Finally, a write-up of your work at the park will be accessible at the following website:
